

How wondrous the glories that meet

(ELLAND. 8.8.8.8. DACTYLIC)

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. How won - drous the glo - ries that meet
 2. His glo - ry — not on - ly God's Son,
 3. The in - fi - nite worth of His blood

In Je - sus, and from His face shine !
 In man - hood He had His full part ;
 Has freed us from hell and from fear,

His love is e - ter - nal and sweet,
 And the un - ion of both joined in One
 That we, as the blest sons of God,

'Tis hu - man, 'tis al - so di - vine.
 Forms the foun - tain of love in His heart.
 May make His good plea - sure our care.

4. O then may His glory and love
 Make us walk in the service of heaven,
 'Mid obedience and suffering to prove
 That we to the Lamb have been given.

Alternate Tunes : Celeste, 23 ; Dursley, 399.