

O Lord, we know it matters nought

(ST. STEPHEN. C.M.)

♩ = 100

1. O Lord, we know it mat - ters nought, How sweet the song may be, No
 2. Then teach Thy gath - ered saints, O Lord, To wor - ship in Thy fear ; And
 3. Thou hast by blood made sin - ners meet, As saints in light, to come And heart but of the Spir - it taught Makes me - lo - dy to Thee.

 let Thy grace mould ev - ery word That meets Thy ho - ly ear.
 wor - ship at the mer - cy - seat, Be - fore the e - ter - nal throne.

4. Thy precious name is all we show,
 Our only passport, Lord ;
 And full assurance now we know,
 Confiding in Thy word.

5. O largely give, 'tis all Thine own,
 The Spirit's goodly fruit ;
 Praise, issuing forth in life, alone
 Our living Lord can suit.

Alternate Tunes : Even, 88 ; Merton, 243.