

Anonyme

Mélodie anglaise (19ème siècle)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. O Thou, whose mer - cies far ex - ceed All we can do or say,
 2. Pre - serve Thy flock most gra - cious - ly, By Thine all - power - ful hand ;
 3. Do Thou, the ve - ry God of peace, Us whol - ly sanc - ti - fy,

As in Thy peo - ple Thou in - deed Dost dai - ly more dis - play ; Let,
 Move them from ev - ery harm a - way, 'Twi - xt them and dan - ger stand ; Till
 And grant us such a rich in - crease Of pow - er from on high, That for our hap - pi - ness, O God, On us while here be - low, Thou shalt ful - ly have ob - tained In us the fruits of grace, spi - rit, soul and bo - dy may, Pre - serv - ed free from stain,

By vir - tue of Christ's death and blood, Thy rich - est bless - ings flow.
 And we, in joys that ne - ver end, Shall see Thee, face to face.
 Be blame - less un - til that great day ; Lord Je - sus Christ, A - men !

Alternate Tunes : Vox Dilecti, 366 ; No Other Plea, 261.