

Charles Andrew Coates (1862-1945)

Asa Hull (1828-?), 1869

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. No act of power could e'er a - tone,
 2. If sin - ners ev - er were to know

No won - der - work - ing word Could, from the bright -
 The depths of love di - vine, All Cal - vary's weak - ness of the throne, Make love's sweet voice be heard.

 ness and its woe, Blest Sav - iour, must be Thine.

3. God's righteousness is there proclaimed,
 His mercy's depths are known,
 While to the full Thou hast maintained
 The glory of His throne.
4. God now is glorified in Thee,
 In Thee, His only Son ;
 His hand, His house, His heart are free,
 Because Thy work is done.

Alternate Tunes : St. Anne, 207 ; Sawley, 75.