

The Lord of life is risen

(WEBB. 7.6.7.6. D.)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. The Lord of life is ris - en, Has left the dark - some
2. The Lord of life is seat - ed At God's right hand on grave, And, death by Him a - bo - lished, He's high — God's just and right - eous an - swer To migh - ty now to save; And we with Him are grace which stooped to die; In Him we too are ris - en, The fruit of all His toil, The first-fruits seat - ed, Oh, bless - ed, won - drous grace! Ac - cept - ed of His har - vest, His suf - fer - ing's rich - est spoil.

and be - lov - ed, In Him, in son - ship's place.

The Lord of life is coming To perfect all His grace ;
To take His blood-bought people
To fill their heavenly place ;
Oh, with what joy ascending
We'll meet Him in the air,
To dwell with Him in glory,
And His blest image bear !

Alternate Tunes : Ellacombe, 78 ; Ewing, 97.