

Our great High Priest is sitting

(DEUTSCHLAND. 7.6.7.6.D)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Our great High Priest is sitt - ing At 2. Through ma - ni - fold temp - ta - tion, My 3. O Je - sus bless - ed Sav - iour, We God's right hand a - bove, For us His hands up - soul holds on her course, Christ's migh - ty in - ter - hope to see Thee soon, Who once on earth didst lift - ing, In sym - pa - thy and love; Whilst ces - sion A - lone is her re - source; My suf - fer, Who soon for us wilt come. 'Twas here be - low, in weak - ness, We gra - cious High Priest's plead - ings, Who God's most gra - cious fa - vour Gave on - ward speed our way; In sor - row oft and on the cross did bleed, Bring down God's grace and Thee, His Son, to die; To live our In - ter -

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, aligned with the notes. The lyrics are: "sick - ness, We sigh and groan and pray. bless - ings, Help in each hour of need. ces - sor ; To plead for us on high." The music ends with a double bar line.

sick - ness, We sigh and groan and pray.
bless - ings, Help in each hour of need.
ces - sor ; To plead for us on high.

Alternate Tunes : Watcher, 56 ; Aurelia, 114