

What will it be to dwell above

(SAGINA. L.M.D.)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. What will it be to dwell a - bove, And
 2. When sin no more ob - structs the sight, And 3. And God has fixed the hap - py day, When with the Lord of glo - ry reign, Since the blest flesh and sense de - ceive no more, When we shall the last tear shall dim our eyes; When He will knowl - edge of His love So bright - ens see the Prince of light, And all His wipe these tears a - way, And fill our all this drea - ry plain? No heart can works of grace ex - plore, What heights and hearts with glad sur - prise; To hear His think, no tongue can tell, What joy 'twill depths of love di - vine Will there through voice, and see His face, And know the be with Christ to dwell. No heart can end - less ag - es shine ! What heights and full - ness of His grace ! To hear His

1. No
2. What
3. To think, no tongue can tell, What depths of love di - vine Will voice, and see His face, And heart can think no tongue can tell, heights and depths of love di - vine heart His voice, and see His face, joy 'twill be with Christ to dwell. there through end - less ag - es shine ! know the full - ness of His grace !

What joy 'twill
 Will there through
 And know the Alternate Tunes : St. Catherine, 223 ; Stella, 173.