

O Saviour, whom absent we love

(SHEPHERD. 8.8.8.8. DACTYLIC)

William Cowper (1731-1800)

C. Jouard (1858-1927)

and F. Jouard (1884-1941).

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. O Sav - iour, whom ab - sent we love, Whom
 2. O come and dis - play us as Thine, And
 3. Oh, then shall the mists be re - moved, And not hav - ing seen we a - dore, Whose name is ex - alt - ed a - leave us no long - er to roam. Let the light of Thy pres - ence, Lord, round us Thy bright - ness be poured. We shall meet Thee whom ab - sent we bove All glo - ry, do - mi - nion, and power ;

 shine, Let the trum - pet soon sum - mon us home.
 loved, We shall see whom un - seen we a - dored.

4. Oh, then never more shall the fears,
 The trials, temptations, and woes,
 Which darken this valley of tears,
 Intrude on our blissful repose.

5. Or, if yet remembered above,
 Remembrance no sadness shall raise ;
 They will bring us fresh thoughts of Thy love,
 New themes for our wonder and praise.

Alternate Tunes : Celeste, 23 ; Elland, 61.