1. O come, Thou strick - en Lamb of God !
2. Take Thou our hearts, and let them be
3. How blest are they who still a - bide

Who shed'st for us Thine own life - blood,
For ev - er closed to all but Thee ;
Close shel - tered by Thy watch - ful side ;

And teach us all Thy love — then pain
Thy will - ing ser - vants, let us wear
Who life and strength from Thee re - ceive,

In life were sweet and death were gain.
The seal of love for ev - er there.
And with Thee move, and in Thee live.

4. Ah, Lord ! enlarge our scanty thought,
To know the wonders Thou hast wrought ;
Unloose our stammering tongues to tell
Thy love, immense, unsearchable.

5. Firstborn of many brethren, Thou !
To whom both heaven and earth must bow ;
Heirs of Thy shame and of Thy throne,
We bear the cross, and seek the crown.
