

James Boyd (1851-1936)

Charles-Henry Purday (1799-1885)

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. O teach us, Lord, Thy search-less love to know, Thou, who hast died.
 2. Thy death has brought to light the Fa-ther's heart, And ours has won ;
 3. Thy flesh is meat, Thy blood, blest Sav-iour, shed, Is drink in - deed ;

Be - fore our fee - ble faith, Lord Je - sus, show Thy hands and side ;
 And now we con - tem - plate Thee as Thou art, God's glo - rious Son !
 On Thee, the true, the heaven - ly, liv - ing Bread, Our souls would feed,

That our glad hearts, res - pon - sive un - to Thine, May
 And know that we are loved with that great love, That
 And live with Thee in life's e - ter - nal home, Where wake with all the power of love di - vine.

 rests on Thee in those bright courts a - bove.
 sin, nor want, nor woe, nor death can come.

Alternate Tune : Lux Benigna, 262.