

Thou hast stood here, Lord Jesus

(PASSION CHORALE. 7.6.7.6.D.)

James George Deck (1802-1884)

Hans-Leo Hassler (1564-1612), 1601

harmonisée par Jean-Sébastien Bach, 1729

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. Thou hast stood here, Lord Je - sus
 2. Thou hast lain here, Lord Je - sus,
 3. Thou hast been here, Lord Je - sus,
 4. We wait for Thine ap - pear - ing :

Be - side the still, cold grave,
 Thy - self the Vic - tim then ;
 But Thou art here no more ;
 We weep, but we re - joice ;

And proved Thy deep com - pas - sion,
 The Lord of life and glo - ry
 The ter - ror and the dark - ness,
 In all our grief and sor - row

Thy migh - ti - ness to save ;
 Once slain for sin - ful men.
 The night of death are o'er ;
 We still can hear Thy voice :

Thy tears of tend - er pi - ty,
 From sin and con - dem - na - tion,
 Great Cap - tain of sal - va - tion,
 « I am the Re - sur - rec - tion ;

Thy spi - rit's an - guished groan,
 When none but Thou could'st save,
 Thy tri - umphs now we sing ;
 I live, who once was slain ;

Teach how for us Thou feel - est
 Thy love than death was stron - ger,
 O grave, where is thy vic - tory ?
 Fear not, the one thou mourn - est

Now seat - ed on the throne.
 And deep - er than the grave.
 O death, where is thy sting ?
 Shall rise with Me to reign. »

Alternate Tunes : Aurelia, 114 ; Ewing, 97.