

Charles Andrew Coates (1862-1945)

Asa Hull (1828-?), 1869

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. No act of power could e'er a - tone, No won - der - work - ing word
 2. If sin - ners ev - er were to know The depths of love di - vine,
 3. God's right-eous-ness is there pro-claimed, His mer - cy's depths are known,

Could, from the bright - ness of the throne, Make love's sweet voice be heard.
 All Cal-vary's weak - ness and its woe, Blest Sav - iour, must be Thine.
 While to the full Thou hast main-tained The glo - ry of His throne.

4. God now is glorified in Thee,
 In Thee, His only Son ;
 His hand, His house, His heart are free,
 Because Thy work is done.

Alternate Tunes : St. Anne, 207 ; Sawley, 75.